

Obituary

Raymond Muhammad Spencer aka “Ray Bone” was born on May 27, 1955 to Roger B. & Mildred Spencer in Wichita, KS. In his early years Mr. Raymond Spencer, contended in boxing bouts, which led to winning the golden gloves, then preceded to high school, where he flourished in football. While succeeding in sports, he managed to maintain being the first Freshman to ever play varsity football at Michigan State College; he also graduated with a formal education in Food System & Economics while attending MSU for four years. He then earned a doctorate degree from the school of Divinity, where in his later years he began preaching.

Raymond Spencer departed to California where he met and married Paulina. They had 3 amazing sons. Over the years he went into deep religious studying, searching for the truth about life and various other religions. He became highly devoted to reading and trying to understand his own self and the path God planned and/or paved for him. He became known as the “Preacher Man”, preaching to all those who would hear his message. His message was consistently that it was “The Sign of the Times”.

On the afternoon of March 27, 2016 Raymond Spencer peacefully passed away while being comforted by his wife at Banner University Medical Center in Phoenix, AZ at 12:00 PM. He fought for his life in a coma that stemmed from a series of strokes and complications that occurred during surgery before God called him home.

He leaves behind a wife of 40 years, three sons; Jamaal Deshawn Spencer, his eldest son, Ramiah Asiel Spencer; his middle son and Raymond Roger Billy Spencer, his youngest son, Gervais “Monty” Spencer, his nephew/son, a mother Mrs. Mildred Spencer, his eldest sister, Nadine Spencer, and Cheryl Andrews, his youngest sister, Nephews: Asadel Andrews and Kamil Andrews. Foster children: Huntley Campber, Kiellieu Ford & Steven Williamson. Grandchildren: Risi Spencer, Tyvous Spencer & Angel Spencer and a host of relatives and friends.

*Do not stand or sit here and cry
Because the man soul is no longer inside
I am no longer inside - So do not cry
I am not there to see or hear you cry
I am a million and millions of miles away.
For today I now Cannot long stay.
I told you that one day I will be gone –
like the wind no place to stay definitely nowhere to hide
I am now the diamond that glow in your eye
I am the sunlight that shines up in the sky
It won't be long before I see you again.
I'll pick up all my bags and see you again*
